Advent Wreath Lighting

Four candles are lit by a member of the congregation while the following prayer is read.

O Christ, you are the prince of peace. You bless the peacemakers as your very own children. Make us bearers of your peace which passes all understanding so that the world may be transformed by your hope, love, joy, and peace. In your holy name we pray. Amen.

The First Reading

2 Samuel 7:1-11, 16

When the king was settled in his house, and the Lord had given him rest from all his enemies around him, the king said to the prophet Nathan, "See now, I am living in a house of cedar, but the ark of God stays in a tent." Nathan said to the king, "Go, do all that you have in mind; for the Lord is with you." But that same night the word of the Lord came to Nathan: Go and tell my servant David: Thus says the Lord: Are you the one to build me a house to live in? I have not lived in a house since the day I brought up the people of Israel from Egypt to this day, but I have been moving about in a tent and a tabernacle. Wherever I have moved about among all the people of Israel, did I ever speak a word with any of the tribal leaders of Israel, whom I commanded to shepherd my people Israel, saying, "Why have you not built me a house of cedar?" Now therefore thus you shall say to my servant David: Thus says the Lord of hosts: I took you from the pasture, from following the sheep to be prince over my people Israel; and I have been with you wherever you went, and have cut off all your enemies from before you; and I will make for you a great name, like the name of the great ones of the earth. And I will appoint a place for my people Israel and will plant them, so that they may live in their own place, and be disturbed no more; and evildoers shall afflict them no more, as formerly, from the time that I appointed judges over my people Israel; and I will give you rest from all your enemies. Moreover the Lord declares to you that the Lord will make you a house. Your house and your kingdom shall be made sure forever before me; your throne shall be established forever.

People: Thanks be to God.

Psalm 89:1-4, 19-26

- 1 Your love, O Lord, for ever will I sing; from age to age my mouth will proclaim your faithfulness.
- 2 For I am persuaded that your love is established for ever; you have set your faithfulness firmly in the heavens.
- 3 "I have made a covenant with my chosen one;
I have sworn an oath to David my servant:
- 4 'I will establish your line for ever, and preserve your throne for all generations.'"
- 19 You spoke once in a vision and said to your faithful people:
"I have set the crown upon a warrior and have exalted one chosen out of the people.
- 20 I have found David my servant;
with my holy oil have I anointed him.
- 21 My hand will hold him fast and my arm will make him strong.
- 22 No enemy shall deceive him, nor any wicked man bring him down.
- 23 I will crush his foes before him and strike down those who hate him.
- 24 My faithfulness and love shall be with him, and he shall be victorious through my Name.
- 25 I shall make his dominion extend from the Great Sea to the River.
- 26 He will say to me, 'You are my Father, my God, and the rock of my salvation.'"

The Second Reading

Romans 16:25-27

Now to God who is able to strengthen you according to my gospel and the proclamation of Jesus Christ, according to the revelation of the mystery that was kept secret for long ages but is now disclosed, and through the prophetic writings is made known to all the Gentiles, according to the command of the eternal God, to bring about the obedience of faith-- to the only wise God, through Jesus Christ, to whom be the glory forever!

Reader: The Word of the Lord.

People: Thanks be to God.

Sequence Hymn Gabriel's Message Does Away H 270 (v. 1,2,3)

The Holy Gospel

Luke 1:26-38

Priest: The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke.

People: Glory to you, Lord Christ.

In the sixth month the angel Gabriel was sent by God to a town in Galilee called Nazareth, to a virgin engaged to a man whose name was Joseph, of the house of David. The virgin's name was Mary. And he came to her and said, "Greetings, favored one! The Lord is with you." But she was much perplexed by his words and pondered what sort of greeting this might be. The angel said to her, "Do not be afraid, Mary, for you have found favor with God. And now, you will conceive in your womb and bear a son, and you will name him Jesus. He will be great, and will be called the Son of the Most High, and the Lord God will give to him the throne of his ancestor David. He will reign over the house of Jacob forever, and of his kingdom there will be no end." Mary said to the angel, "How can this be, since I am a virgin?" The angel said to her, "The Holy Spirit will come upon you, and the power of the Most High will overshadow you; therefore the child to be born will be holy; he will be called Son of God. And now, your relative Elizabeth in her old age has also conceived a son; and this is the sixth month for her who was said to be barren. For nothing will be impossible with God." Then Mary said, "Here am I, the servant of the Lord; let it be with me according to your word." Then the angel departed from her.

Priest: The Gospel of the Lord

People: Praise to you, Lord Christ.

Homily

The Rev. Bruce Gray

The Nicene Creed

We believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, of one Being with the Father. Through him all things were made.

For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven: by the power of the Holy Spirit he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary, and was made man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate; he suffered death and was buried. On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures; he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.

He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son. With the Father and the Son he is worshipped and glorified.
He has spoken through the Prophets.
We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church. We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.
We look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come. Amen.

The Prayers of the People

The Leader and People pray responsively.

You make us glad, oh God, in your desire to dwell among us;
We rejoice that the very air around us stirs and announces your Advent.

We pray for your Church.

Alive and waiting, gazing east and feeling the wind of your approaching wings.

We pray for the multitudes of people who, day by day, become Church; In our Diocesan Cycle of Prayer we pray for the clergy and people of Holy Family, Fishers. We pray for Michael, our presiding Bishop; Jennifer our Bishop; we pray for deacons, for priests, and for bishops. Make us all beacons of your coming: Your hands where strength is needed. Your heart where love has grown thin. The emblem of rejoicing in heaven when there is cause for rejoicing on earth.

We ask that you will hear us and attend patiently as we convey our needs and our thanks, things spoken aloud or held in the silence of our hearts:

We pray for those who serve as leaders in this world - local, national, global: Make them good guides in caring for this earth and advocates for true peace among all people.

Give them wisdom and kind hearts. Make them zealous for the common good and clear-headed in our common woes.

We pray for all people of this earth: For those who are lost and for those who have found themselves in you. For those who sit in fear and for those who stand in hope. For those at margins of life, and for those who work to draw them toward the center. For those who suffer illness or tragedy or loss or sorrow, and for those who have cause for celebration. In our parish cycle of prayer, we pray for the Burke, Butt, and Cahalan families, and for those who serve as our Outreach Committee. Let us pray for our own needs and those of others.

The People may add their own prayers and thanksgivings, aloud or silently.

Tend the sick, O Christ, especially Phyllis, Nicole, Ed, Anita, Norma and William, Abby, Megan, Jim, Jacob, Dave and Bev, Paul, Eden, Leslie, Karen, Ruth, Lisa, Grant, Kathy, Sherrie,

Larry and Jean, Cheryl, Julie, Vicki and John, Beth, Cali, Jodie, and Katja; those expecting babies, especially Katelyn and Jay; soothe the suffering, O Lord, and shield the joyous.
Hold their gaze in the warmth of your hand, that they may look upon you and rejoice.

We pray for those who have died, especially remembering John Dingman; that they may know eternal joy in your presence. And we pray for those who mourn, who await your joyous coming in the midst of tears.

Shine upon them, O God of Mercy, that even in death they may find Life; that even in sadness they may see your coming and find new hope.

Keep us mindful that your Kingdom lives within us, and that we are, in every moment, the pulse and warmth of your coming among us.

Rise up, O God, like the dawn; fall on us like the dew of morning. Keep us looking east, that we should not miss the brilliant moment of your arrival. Amen.

Confession of Sin

Celebrant: We pray to you also for the forgiveness of our sins.

Most merciful God, we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done, and by what we have left undone. We have not loved you with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves. We are truly sorry and we humbly repent. For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us; that we may delight in your will, and walk in your ways, to the glory of your Name. Amen.

Celebrant: Almighty God have mercy on you, forgive you all your sins through our Lord Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life. Amen.

A Prayer for Holy Family

Gracious and generous God, creator and giver of abundance, we thank you for our many blessings. All that we have and all that we are is from you. We offer you thanks and praise for the beauty of the earth, our work, our families, our loved ones, and all the abundant gifts you have given. You are with us always and everywhere. In each dark hour, you are here. In each bright hour, you are here. Blessed by your grace, may we show gratitude by sharing abundantly what you have given. We seek to be your faithful stewards. Keep in our hearts that by serving our brothers and sisters we serve you, by donating to Holy Family we give back to you, by embracing the outcast we welcome the world. We remain ever grateful for your abundant blessings; your constant love for all, the gift of your Son Jesus Christ for the world, and the presence of your Holy Spirit with everyone. Amen.

The Peace

Celebrant: The peace of the Lord be always with you.

People: And also with you.

Announcements

The Holy Communion

Offertory Anthem Advent Noel Liebergen

Doxology H 380 (v. 3)

Praise God, from whom all blessings flow; praise him, all creatures here below; praise him above, ye heavenly host; praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost.

The Great Thanksgiving

Celebrant: The Lord be with you.

People: And also with you.

Celebrant: Lift up your hearts.

People: We lift them to the Lord.

Celebrant: Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People: It is right to give him thanks and praise.

Then, the Celebrant proceeds: Blessed are you, Strong and faithful God. All your works, the height and the depth, echo the silent music of your praise.

In the beginning, your Word summoned light: night withdrew, and creation dawned. As ages passed unseen, waters gathered on the face of the earth and life appeared. When the times at last had ripened and the earth grown full in abundance, You created in your image man and woman, the crown of all creation. You gave us breath and speech, that all the living might find a voice to sing your praise.

So now, with all the powers of heaven and earth, we chant the ageless hymn of your glory:

Sanctus S 124

Celebrant and People

Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might, heaven and earth are full of your glory.

Hosanna in the highest.

Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.

Hosanna in the highest.

All holy God, how wonderful are the works of your hands! You restored the beauty of your image when sin had scarred the world. As a mother tenderly gathers her children, you embraced a people as your own and filled them with longing for a peace that would last and for a justice that would never fail.

Through countless generations your people hungered for the bread of freedom. From them you raised up Jesus, the living bread, in whom ancient hungers were satisfied. He healed the sick, though he himself would suffer; he offered life to sinners, though death would hunt him down. But with a love stronger than death, he opened wide his arms and surrendered his spirit.

Holy One, let your Holy Spirit move in power over us and over our earthly gifts of bread and wine, that they may become the body and blood of Christ.

On the night before he met with death, Jesus came to table with those he loved. He took bread and blessed you, God of all creation; he broke the bread among his disciples and said: Take this all of you, and eat it; This is my body which will be given up for you.

When supper was ended, he took a cup of wine and gave thanks to you, God of all creation; he passed the cup among his disciples and said: Take this, all of you, and drink from it: this is the cup of my blood, the blood of the new and everlasting covenant. It will be shed for you and for all so that sins may be forgiven. Do this in memory of me.

Let us proclaim the mystery of faith:

Christ has died.

Christ is risen.

Christ will come again.

Holy One, we commemorate Jesus, your Son, as we offer you this sacrifice. Death could not bind him, for you raised him up in the spirit of holiness and exalted him as Lord of creation. May his coming in glory find us ever-watchful in prayer, strong in love, and faithful in the breaking of the bread.

Rejoicing in the Holy Spirit, your whole church offers thanks and praise. We pray for those here present and all whose lives bring hope to this world.

Lord of the living and the dead, awaken those fallen asleep in faith to the undying light of pardon and peace, especially those who have died alone, unloved, and unmourned. Gather them all into communion with Mary, Joseph, and with all your saints. Then, at last, will all creation be one and all divisions healed, and we shall join in singing your praise through your Son, Jesus Christ.

Through Christ, with Christ, in Christ, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, all glory and honor is yours, almighty God, for ever and ever. Amen.

And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen

The Breaking of the Bread

A period of silence is kept.

Celebrant: Alleluia. Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us;

People: Therefore let us keep the feast. Alleluia.

Fraction Anthem

Book Group: Reading the World book group will take a bit of a break for the month of December...but never fear - the book chosen for January is a bit of a long read. It's not a typical novel; it happens to be a slice of American and Indiana history - Timothy Eagan's newest book, A Fever in the Heartland: The KKK's Plot to Take Over America, and the Woman Who Stopped Them. It happened in the 1920s, and if you live in Indiana, then you live in said "Heartland". It's not entirely a heart-warming story, but at the heart of the story sits a woman who will put her whole heart into saving the nation! (Sorry...too many hearts!) Get your copy, get reading, and join the conversation on Wednesday, January 17th, 2024 at 3 PM. Contact Bruce Gray or Cathy Gray for information on how to join the Zoom call. bgray@hfec.org
